

Exhibit A - Drawings are for concept only and will evolve in the next stages of design.

renovation concept LIBRARY IMPROVEMENTS

new entry canopy provides clear entrance identification for visitors arriving from Kingston Avenue new south entry leverages existing south parking lot service desk adjacent to south entry upper floor restroom more efficient book stack layout new elevator for accessible south entry new teen area

updated technology in study rooms additional study rooms

outdoor program area

drive up service window

UPPER FLOOR

LOWER FLOOR

first floor youth services near entry improves access for children and parents reconfigured + enhanced youth services department improved security (access control at staff locations) youth services restroom service desk at building entry new entry canopy provides clear entrance identification along Front Street centrally located entry minimizes travel distances

front street

renovation concept LOWER FLOOR

front street

renovation concept UPPER FLOOR

north parking lot
current: 23 spaces
proposed: 33 spaces

existing to remain
no work or cosmetic work only

The north arrow points upwards. The scale bar shows increments of 10 units, ranging from -10 to 60.

east parking lot
current: 53 spaces
proposed: 62 spaces

south parking lot
current: 54 spaces
proposed: 49 spaces

kingston avenue