Gallery 777's First Exhibit Continues Through July

Gallery 777, located on the lower level of the Library, had its grand opening on Friday, June 6 from 6 to 8 p.m.

The opening exhibit, entitled "Thunder Over Lightning," will be on display until the end of July and features the works of three local artists - Karen Karlowski, Patrick McDonnell and Jean Paulis.

While all three artists have different points of view, they are tied together by their use of color to create shapes and environments without repetitive forms, or identifiable marks. These one of a kind images are both energetic and gestural.

Jean Paulis, who lives in Lisle, was thrilled for the opportunity to be one of the first artists to show at Gallery 777. The reason for her involvement was simple.

"I'm always amazed at how busy the Lisle Library is. This is a way for us to keep that love of libraries alive," said Paulis. "To give people a reason to go to the library, other than the obvious."

Coming in August/September to Gallery 777: "Where My Rosemary Goes", a collection of oil paintings by Rosemary Sieben.

Explore with us this summer!

by Shannon Halikias

By the time this newsletter is in your hands, our summer reading program - Explore With Us, will be in full swing. Summer can be the busiest time of the year in the Library as children stream into our doors in search of books, activities, and programs. This isn't just happening in Lisle. Summer Reading Programs are a staple across our nation as a variety of studies have shown that summer reading prevents the loss of acquired skills. Summer reading loss is cumulative. In fact, the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction states: "By the end of 6th grade, children who lose reading skills over the summer are two years behind their classmates."

Summer programs in libraries not only help prevent that "summer reading backslide," but also encourage readers and foster a love of reading. Children also have the opportunity to read beyond their standard reading lists and digest magazines, graphic novels, and explore reading for the sheer sake of interest.

And "Summer Read 2014" isn't just for kids. Our Adult Department provides an opportunity for teens, parents and adult patrons to participate in activities and explore parts of our collection they might not have even known existed - a perfect tie in for our theme.

There is still time to register for this year's Summer Read Program. You have until August 1 to log your books online for the chance to receive prizes and incentives. Please join us this summer at the Library and explore our collection, opportunities, resources, and fun!

Learn English at the Library

The Library is offering ESL classes this summer on Monday nights from 6:30 - 8 p.m. and on Saturday mornings from 10 - 11:30 a.m.

Mondays: July 7, 21; August 4, 18 • Saturdays: July 5, 19; August 2, 16

Round out your ESL training by also attending English Conversation Group sessions the second and fourth Saturday of every month at 10 a.m.

For more information, contact Jean Demas, Adult Literacy Librarian, at literacy@lislelibrary.org or 630-971-1675, ext. 1002.

Now Available: hoopla

Library card holders can now download the free hoopla digital mobile app on their Android or IOS device to begin enjoying thousands of artists and titles - from major Hollywood studios, record companies and publishers - available to borrow for instant streaming or temporary downloading to their smartphones, tablets, computers and Apple TV.
